

3rd Oct 2022

Dear Parents and Students,

TCC AGM on 6 Oct @ 8:00 am

A gentle Reminder to all parents about the Annual General Meeting of TCC on;

Date: 6th October 2022 (Thursday)

Time: 8:00 am

Venue: Watersides Cafeteria

There will be a light breakfast served. It will be a good opportunity for you to join in and meet up with rest of the community members. So far, we have received only two nomination forms for next year's committee. Please do drop in and meet with the existing committee members. We will be discussing issues related to transport and cafeteria, so it's a perfect time for you to come and express your concerns.

Rendezvous - A Carnival – (Battle of the Bands and Dances of the World)

After a long hiatus induced due to the pandemic, we bring to you our Carnival again...This time it has being very aptly called as 'Rendezvous' – We need a meeting point, a place where all students, alumni, staff, parents and well-wishers may gather, reminisce and look towards the future together.

This November we the students, staff and parents in Tanarata are in the process of creating an unbelievable world of extraordinary beautiful Carnival themed Rendezvous with electrifying games and performances and delicious food for all to enjoy. We are specially organising this Carnival on a Saturday so that we can all meet and be merry together. Please keep yourselves free and do make it a point to visit us with your friends and other family members. Your gracious presence will add to the overall merriment.

Very briefly, here are a few things about the carnival I would like to share with you.

- Carnival Timings will be from 9:00 am till 1:00 pm on Saturday, 19 Nov 2022.
- Students may dress up according to the theme that is Rendezvous – Back to school.
- Students who are setting up games stalls and are performing have to come in early to ensure that everything is ready by 9:00 am.

- Year 10s and 11s having been raising funds and will be organising games stalls. The money they make from the games will go towards their class fund and will be used for their future outings.
- Primary school students will be taking part in various dances from around the world. A separate email has already been sent out to the parents about the attire.
- Year 7-9, Secondary school students will be taking part in flash mob performances and battle of the bands.
- No entry fee, all are welcome.
- Coupons will be sold in booklets of RM 10/- and they are to be used for the games.
- Food trucks are coming in with loads of fun food. All food purchases will be in cash.
- Food/Coffee as well as gelato trucks along the road next to the field.
- Indian Vegetarian Street Food for sale in the Cafeteria
- Canned and other drinks sold by the TCC as a part of fund raising activity

There are loads of activities that have been planned for that day besides the usual games stall that the students are putting up.

- Welcome back to school accompanied by drums (Dholak and Tavil)
- Professionally Organised Games stalls in the field.
- Lucky Draw with loads of prizes to be won
- Horror House in the Mezzanine Floor organised by the Year 11s
- Water Dunk-In Tank organised by the Year 10s
- Squid Games organised by the Year 10s in the Field
- Lively performances in the MPH and Field
- Sale of story books
- Photo-booth
- Pop-Corn and Candyfloss
- Sand Art and Face Painting

We will be sending out e-invites for this function and regular updates on this but please do save the date! Feel free to bring your family, friends and neighbours...the more the merrier!
